

Presidential Election Next Tuesday

EVERY ELIGIBLE NARBERTH MAN AND WOMAN URGED TO VOTE.

At the March meeting of the Narberth Civic Association the resolution re-printed below was adopted and voted to be spread on the minutes of the meeting and printed in Our Town:

Whereas, One of the objects of the Narberth Civic Association is "to promote any project having for its purpose the betterment of the community as a whole," and

Whereas, The welfare and prosperity of any community is dependent largely upon the participation of its inhabitants in its public affairs, and

Whereas, The world is now slowly recovering from the effects of a disastrous war waged among the nations to ensure and perpetuate the rights of self-determination in government affairs, and

Whereas, There was held in the Borough of Narberth on Tuesday, May the 17th, 1920, a primary election in accordance with the provisions of the law, and

Whereas, At the election aforesaid the total number of electors who presented themselves at the polls to exercise the franchise was one hundred and sixty-two (162), the number of electors being qualified so to vote being nine hundred and ninety-two (992). Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Board of Directors of the Narberth Civic Association, in regular session this day assembled, do hereby record, on behalf of the membership of the said Association, their emphatic disapproval of the apathy in civic affairs manifested by those citizens who, on this and other occasions, fail to exercise their rights of suffrage.

Since the above resolution was adopted the franchise has been granted to our women. It is to be expected that every woman eligible to vote as well as every male voter will avail themselves of this American right and privilege and be indeed a part of our government—a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

The polls on the second floor of Elm Hall, Forrest above Haverford avenue, will be open from 7 A. M. to 7 P. M., Tuesday, November 2nd.

League of Women Voters to Hold Special Meeting

TO BE HELD MONDAY EVENING
AT 8 P. M. IN THE METHODIST CHURCH—A NON-PARTI-SAN MEETING.

This special meeting is being called for the express purpose of giving all women voters the necessary assistance as to how to intelligently use their ballot on next Tuesday, November 2, and to ably mark the proposed amendment to the State Constitution.

If you don't know, come to this meeting and find out—it will be too late after Election Day.

When viewing our present blanket form of ballot, with its multiplicity of squares, etc., it is very apt to confuse the old voter, let alone the new one. It will be the part of wisdom for every woman to improve this opportunity and familiarize herself with the ballot and all its requirements. It must be borne in mind that the League of Women Voters is non-partisan, having absolutely

Community Club Luncheon a Big Success

MRS. E. C. BATCHELOR TENDERED
OVATION—REPORTS GIVEN FROM NATIONAL AND
STATE CONVENTIONS
BY PROMINENT WOMEN.

There were 125 women seated at the Community Club luncheon on Tuesday, October 26. The day was beautiful and the Community Room was made beautiful with specimens of autumn's bloom. The tasty covers were made most palatable, served by the charming aids, who had brightened their white attire by garlands of autumn leaves and aprons of leaf design. The song of the Pennsylvania Women's Clubs and other favorites were sung during the luncheon. Everything was bright and all were happy.

At the close of the luncheon a welcome was tendered the new President, Mrs. E. C. Batchelor, through Mrs. A. B. Ross, Second Vice-President. Following the remarks of Mrs. Ross the club members stood and sang a verse written in honor of Mrs. Batchelor. After Mrs. Batchelor made fitting response, she extended greetings to the guests and club members.

The program continued with addresses all of vital interest to the woman of today. Mrs. H. Prentiss Nichols, President of the New Century Club of Philadelphia, related some of her experiences at the National Convention held in Des Moines, as chairman of the Committee on Resolutions. Mrs. Nichols called attention to the activities of the moving picture forces to abandon censorship.

Mrs. S. Blair Luckie, President of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania's Federated Women's Clubs, spoke of the State Convention held at Harrisburg. Mrs. Luckie laid especial stress upon the five bills to come before Congress in the near future, all of which concern women's interests.

Miss Jane Campbell, leader of the Monday Conference in Philadelphia, gave many quotations predicting disastrous results if the women should vote. These included opinions from rather remote years up to the present day. Miss Campbell presented the subject in her usual humorous manner which is so familiar to the Narberth Club.

Mrs. Winfield S. MacHenry, of Ridley Park, spoke on the advisability of Junior Clubs, stating that the Juniors brought enthusiasm to the women, and the Seniors gave judgment to the girls.

Mrs. Mary Rose Collins read poems from Joyce Kilmer and others, and then gave, upon request, "A Hunk of Tin." Mrs. Collins was a former President of the Philadelphia Matinee Musical Club.

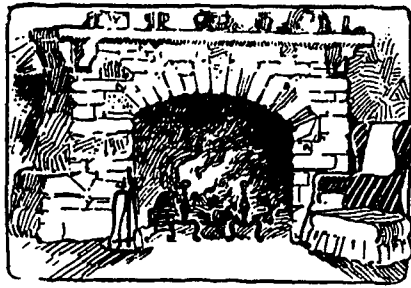

Home talent was also in evidence. Mrs. Joseph Barclay rendered vocal selections entitled, "Water of Minnetonka" and "For You Alone." She was accompanied on the violin by Miss Ann Barclay and with Mrs. George Trayner at the piano.

A duet was given by Mrs. Harry Bradley and Mrs. Howard Hoffman, accompanied by Mrs. Wm. Stanley.

The music of the day was under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Barclay. The decorating was arranged by Mrs. John W. Joyce. Mrs. Wm. Livingston was the hostess in charge. Her aids were: Mrs. Robert Nash, Mrs. Harold Fenno, Mrs. G. Orth, Mrs. F. H. Stevens, Mrs. Clement Booth, Mrs. Harold Nash, Mrs. Richard Gifford, Mrs. H. E. Ruch, Mrs. C. L. McKee, and Mrs. James Donnelly.

Several former members of the club returned to Narberth for this well-known day. Some of the other guests representing neighboring Federated Clubs were: Mrs. Conrad Jones, President of the Conshohocken Club; Mrs. Joseph McAllister, former President of the Hathaway Shakespeare Club of Philadelphia;

Special Committee Will Confer Personally With President Today on Deportations.

Public Ledger Bureau,
Washington, Oct. 25.

The dismissal of Louis F. Post, as Assistant Secretary of Labor, will be formally asked of President Wilson tomorrow by the American Legion, when a committee of six, appointed by National Commander F. W. Galbraith, Jr., will visit the White House and lay the soldier organization's case against Mr. Post before the chief executive.

The committee, composed of Democrats from Southern States, including Henry D. Lindsley, of Texas; Ray Hoffman, of Oklahoma; Wilbur C. Hall, of Virginia; Emmett O'Neal, of Kentucky; J. M. Johnson, of South Carolina, and John J. Wicker, of Virginia, came to Washington today and after an exhaustive examination of all the papers in the case decided the matter was of such importance as to demand the attention of President Wilson and to that end took the matter up with Secretary Tumulty, and the conference was arranged.

Early in May, 1920, representatives of the Legion in the Pacific Coast States, demanded an investigation of Mr. Post's official conduct with reference to the deportation of aliens, and 000,000 qualified women voters of America, the majority of whom are voting for the first time, of the debt of gratitude they owe to the pioneers of the suffrage cause. They will be there asking the women voters to give a "Thank Offering" to the Anna Howard Shaw Memorial Fund, which is being raised for the purpose of making a fitting memorial to the woman who, above all others, was instrumental in gaining the passage of the Nineteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, granting full suffrage to all women citizens.

All of these women sentinels will bear banners saying, "Give as Your Heart Dictates—Anna Howard Shaw Gave Her Best," and all of them will be armed with collection baskets, plates or containers, as well as pledge cards. They will not ask anything from men voters, but, of course, they will not reject an offering from a male citizen. Their object is to get the women to express, with a large or small donation, their thanks to the woman who fought their battle for them and won for them the vote.

The Anna Howard Shaw Committee has complete organization in 44 of the 48 States, and probably will have every State organized by election day. In each State an enthusiastic group of women, formerly identified with the suffrage cause, is working hard to make this plan a complete success and to cover the entire country with "Thank Offering" sentinels. With the full prestige of the old suffrage organization back of them, there is no doubt that every part of the nation will witness this unique sight of a woman, without the slightest partisan intent, standing all day at the polls.

For these women sentinels, it should be explained, are to be there as non-partisans. Every one of them, of course, has her preferences and will vote herself according to her own judgment. But she will not, at any time during her stand as a sentinel, urge or advise any women to vote either for Harding or Cox, or for any local candidate. Her sole purpose will be to impress upon every woman who approaches the polls the idea of the wonderful privilege she is exercising and to arouse within her a spirit of thanksgiving.

Philadelphia was the first place where the sentinels were organized. The entire suffrage organization of several thousand women will be used in that city to stand at the 1,400 polling places there. Director of Public Safety Cortelyou has already given them a special permit.

In Pittsburgh, the home of Mrs. John O. Miller, general chairman of the Anna Howard Shaw Memorial Committee, a similar permit has been granted.

All over Pennsylvania, smaller cities and towns have organized the women for sentinel duty.

In New York, Miss Mary Hay is organizing the suffrage sentinels and expects to get a permit. Boston also is well organized and it is expected that Mrs. Medill McCormick will arrange a similar ceremony in Chicago. Prospects for a large turnout at the polls in Buffalo, N. Y., are also bright.

Other cities throughout the country are working on the plan and expect to report within a week or two. All of them are keeping in touch with the National Headquarters of the Fund, No. 1606 Finance Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

It is expected that many thousands of dollars will be raised by the election day sentinels. Every cent of it will go into the Anna Howard Shaw Memorial Fund. This fund was authorized at the last session of the National Woman Suffrage Association in Chicago last winter. At that time, the Suffrage Association, having achieved its original object, changed its name to the National League of Women Voters. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw has been its President for years. It was under her guidance that many States adopted woman suffrage, and it was the campaign led by her which resulted in the submission of the Suffrage Amendment to the States.

Practically on the eve of victory, this remarkable woman died. Fate had decreed that she should not live to witness the culmination of her work. But the women who had followed her into so many battles did not forget her or her valiant services. They decided to erect a suitable memorial in her honor and authorized the raising of a $500,000 fund for this purpose.

Considering the late Dr. Shaw's extremely practical and humanitarian outlook upon life, it would be inappropriate to raise a memorial in her honor which was not useful; and especially useful to the cause she spent her life in advocating. Therefore, the committee decided not to erect a monument, but to make the Memorial Fund serve some purpose allied to the main aims of Dr. Shaw's life—the social, political, economic and professional advancement of women.

So it was decided to divide this $500,000 equally between Bryn Mawr College for Girls, to endow a Foundation in Politics for women, and the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania, to endow a Foundation in Preventive Medicine. These two objects were close to the late Dr. Shaw's heart, and she would undoubtedly appreciate them more than any other memorial to her honor.

In charge of the work in the various counties of Pennsylvania are the following:

Allegheny, Mrs. John O. Miller; Armstrong, Miss Mary Heine; Berks, Mrs. Daniel F. Ancona; Blair, Mrs. Geo. B. Bennett; Butler, Miss Gertrude McKinney; Cambria, Mrs. Morgan V. Jones; Centre, Mrs. Robert M. Beach; Chester, Miss Emily Hoopes; Crawford, Miss Marion Davenport; Delaware, Mrs. J. S. C. Harvey; Erie, Dr. Anna M. Schrade; Fulton, Mrs. C. V. COMMUNITY CLUB NOTES.

The regular meeting of the Club will be held on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, instead of the afternoon, as is customary. The object of this meeting is to give the young girls of Narberth an opportunity to attend. It is hoped at this time to form a Junior Department to the Club. These Junior Clubs are a great success in some of our neighboring towns, and the Narberth Club hopes to give our girls the same opportunities. The place of this meeting is the usual meeting place—the Community Room of the Y. M. C. A.

Efforts are being made to form a dancing class for the young people and also to form a millinery class for the women. More definite information will be published next week.

THE FIRESIDE

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Schneek, 314 Dudley avenue, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Mildred Irene. "Daddy" called at the Presbyterian Hospital, Philadelphia, on Sunday, October 24th, and brought home both mother and daughter, who are getting along in health very nicely.

Ten or twelve of the business men of Narberth were present at a hearing scheduled for Friday last before the Public Service Commission in City Hall in behalf of "Pat" Donohue, our local taxi driver. "Pat" is well known to all residents of our town, having been in the hacking business here for more than fifteen years. On account of the application for a certificate from the Public Service Commission not having been acted upon, the hearing was postponed until November 5th.

Welcome to the Old Snow Birds

NAMELY, JIM DONNELLY, PERRY
REDIFER, ETC., ETC.—DON'T FORGET THE DINNER-DANCE.

The leaves of the trees turn—in color—and fall, and summer passes—at least that's what the papers say—but Jim Donnelly, and Perry Redifer, and Walter Shaw, and Jim McKell, and Bill Kirkpatrick, and the other snow birds of the Narberth Tennis Association go on playing the game just as though it were mid-summer. James J. Eastmend says he belongs, too.

Which is just one way of saying that the season of Winter Tennis is now on at the courts at Elmwood and Essex avenues, and that on any cold, blustery Saturday afternoon from now on until snow falls, you will find all the regulars on the job.

By the way, and this seems to be an appropriate place to say it, all members of the Tennis Association are urged to reserve Friday evening, November 19, for the annual dinner-dance at Elm Hall, at which time the prizes won in the recent Tournament will be awarded to the new title-holders.

But to continue. In spite of Wayne Harris, optimism, Bill Bailey and his partner, Edgerton, won that necessary one game in the finals in the consolation doubles with Wayne and Horace Smedley, last Saturday, which gave B. and E. the match in three straight sets.

The complete list of winners in the 1920 Tournament follows:

Singles—F. T. Van Auker; runner up, A. T. Gragan.

Consolation Singles—W. D. R. Evans; runner up, Frank Baer.

Doubles—Warwick and Shaw; runners up, Kirkpatrick and Staples.

Consolation Doubles—Bailey and Edgerton; runners up, W. Harris and Smedley.

Most Popular Chairman of the Entertainment Committee—Bob Pattison; runner up, Bob Pattison, 3rd.

Don't forget the Dinner-Dance, Friday evening, November 19.

PENNSYLVANIA'S FORESTS.

Governor Sproul recently pledged his administration to the restoration of Pennsylvania's forests. In his speech at the Ole Bull celebration, in Potter County, the Governor said:

"Pennsylvania produces. One great branch of Pennsylvania's production has not only been neglected, but virtually destroyed. Time was when Pennsylvania was the first lumber-producing State in the Union. Today she has fallen back so far that about half the States have passed her.

"If we compare what we need and what we consume in lumber with what our forests actually grow, we may recognize the unhappy truth that Pennsylvania is a deforested State. That we have allowed her to become so is one of the greatest blots upon our industrial sagacity and our statesmanship.

"Because Pennsylvania is deforested our people are daily paying increasing prices, not only for all products of the forest, but for all products of every kind, for there are few articles of human necessity, use, or enjoyment that can be produced, transported, or delivered without the forest.

"We are beginning to realize what will happen when the actual famine in lumber and forest products arrives, the foretaste of which is already with us. Ten years ago Pennsylvania was producing as much timber and lumber products as she consumed. Twenty years ago we were a lumber exporting State. Today we are importing three times as much in forest products as is being cut from our depleted store, and almost ten times as much as our forests are growing.

"Out of 13,000,000 acres of forest lands in Pennsylvania there are 6,000,000 that are fit for nothing except to grow trees. Of this 6,000,000 acres good only for trees, 1,000,000 is owned and protected by the State. The other 5,000,000 has been aptly called the "Pennsylvania Desert." It is producing nothing, and that is the best definition of a desert. If this Pennsylvania Desert were protected from fire it would produce substantially all of the wood needed by the people of our State. Fire makes and keeps it a desert. One great problem is to stop fire.

"Forest fires do not stop with the destruction of the forest. They destroy the industries which depend upon the forest and the opportunity for employment afforded by them. I am deeply interested in restoring the forests of Pennsylvania and the industries that go with them, and sincere in my intention to leave nothing undone that is practical and possible to bring back to our forests the enormous power of production which was once one of the blessings of the State, and can be so again.

"Why not restore Penn's Woods? Why not let these mountains contribute once more as they have done in the past to the wealth, prosperity and beauty of Pennsylvania?

"The first step is to put an end to the unmitigated curse of forest fire. The second is to take into the hands and under the protection of the Commonwealth, as soon as we can, the 5,000,000 acres of the Pennsylvania Desert.

"These things take money. I have strong hope that the next Legislature will appropriate generously to stop the curse of forest fire, and as much as the revenues of the State and the just demands of other departments of our work will permit, for the purchase of more State forests. These are two of the fundamental policies of this administration.

"The purchase of additional State Forests will be an investment, not an expense—an investment both sound and profitable. It will not only pay in the ordinary sense in returns upon the capital invested, but it will be a powerful means of securing to our people the supplies of timber—without which, under our form of civilization, there can be no assured prosperity. Nor can we overlook their value for conserving the health of our people, regulating the flow of our streams, and for outdoor recreation.

"Never forget that if we fail to provide for our own needs in forest products no one else will do it for us. The very solemn fact is that if we fail to do so, neither in the other States of the Union nor elsewhere in the whole world, shall we be able to secure what we need. The supplies of timber still available in the South will be exhausted in ten or fifteen years. What remains will be in the Far West and Alaska, and the $25,000,000 we are already paying annually for freight on forest products will seem small compared to what we shall pay for them, so long as the supply lasts. Within a generation that supply will be scarce to the point of famine.

"As with Pennsylvania among the States, so with the other part of the world has or can supply us with the kinds of timber we need if we fail to produce it ourselves. Pennsylvania cannot trust to the Nation; the Nation cannot trust to the world. We must grow what we need or go without.

"It is high time we took the forest question seriously. We cannot get along without wood, yet we seem to have neglected nothing that would destroy our trees and deprive us of it. Our children will see the time when what we have grown at home will be the whole supply.

"Substitutes may prevent the demand for wood from increasing as fast as would otherwise be the case, but in spite of them the growth of construction, industry, and population is so rapid that the world needs and uses more timber decade after decade. Over the earth the need for forest products rises as the forests are destroyed. Pennsylvania's forests hold the key to her future not less than her farms, her factories, and her mines. To restore Penn's Woods is a clear-cut duty, from which we cannot afford to turn our eyes or withhold our hands."
